Important: It is recommended that all entries be fully immunized against feline enteritis, rhinotracheitis and calici viruses. Maryland state law requires all cats to be immunized against rabies. Any entry from a household where there has been a contagious illness within 21 days of the opening day of the show will be prohibited. A veterinarian will be on call 24 hours. If the show committee deems it necessary to call a veterinarian, the exhibitor will be responsible for all charges. Please trim claws before judging.

 All cats in the show hall must be free of fleas, ear mites, fungus and show no sign of contagious disease, illness or neglect.

Sales Cages: Available for exhibitors only. Kittens entered in the show or for sale must be at least 4 months old, be able to show proof of age and be owned by the exhibitor. No cats or kittens may be benched or sold from carriers under the benching area or from the parking area. No non-pedigree cat or kitten may be sold or given away at the show.

Novice Exhibitors: Please bring your cat in a secure carrier. Bring your own litter pans, food & water dishes and coverings for the top, bottom, back and sides of your benching cage. A single cage comes with each entry and measures approximately 22x22x22, extra space is available – see summary form. Litter will be provided.

Clerks: Ring clerks are needed! Clerks will be paid $50.00 for both days plus lunch. Do not deduct from fees, clerks will be chosen based upon experience. Please indicate on the summary sheet if you will be available to clerk.

 This show is for the display and competition of cats. With respect to the enjoyment of our exhibitors, judges, clerks, vendors and spectators, and the health and welfare of our cats, we retain the right to refuse any entry. Well behaved children are always welcome and encouraged to participate.

There will be many full service vendors at this show. In addition, there will be vendors of all kinds of pet related products. For more info the vendors and events at the World of Pets Pet Expo, please visit their website: <http://www.worldofpets.org/>

Liability:

All persons who attend the World of Cats Cat Show at the World of Pets Expo, and who bring their pet(s) do so at their own risk and agree to abide by the rules for safety established by Premier Events, Inc. (PE) and Hidden Paw Cat Club (ACFA). It is recommended that all entries be fully immunized against feline enteritis, rhinotracheitis and calici viruses. Maryland state law requires all cats to be immunized against rabies. Any entry from a household where there has been a contagious illness within 21 days of the opening day of the show will be prohibited. Pet owners also understand and agree that they are liable for any injury and/or damage to persons and/or property that may be caused by their pet. Pet owners also understand that PE and ACFA are not responsible for loss of property and/or injury to persons or pets. PE and ACFA reserve the right to refuse entry to entry to any person or animal for any cause deemed not in the best interest of the Expo, and/or to have any person or animal removed from the show site for any cause deemed not in the best interest of the Expo. Pet owners understand and agree that they will abide by all decisions of PE and ACFA.
